VILLA DOLCE
COLLECTION

Love What You Serve™

ROOTED IN ROME. CRAFTED IN ARIZONA.
SERVED COAST TO COAST.

The Villa Dolce story begins with family and a passion for tradition.

Growing up in Rome, the Marcaccini brothers spent their summers along the Italian coast, where sharing gelato with family and friends was more than a daily ritual—it was a way of bringing people together. Those moments of connection, conversation, and joy inspired a lifelong appreciation for authentic Italian craftsmanship and the simple pleasures that make life meaningful.

Today, Villa Dolce honors that heritage by creating artisan gelato and sorbetto, crafted with premium ingredients sourced from around the world. Guided by traditional recipes and a commitment to quality, every flavor reflects the care, authenticity, and attention to detail that define Italian dessert culture.

As a family-owned company, we believe dessert is more than the final course — it is often the final impression. It is the moment guests remember, the experience shared around the table, and the connection created through something thoughtfully crafted and genuinely enjoyed.

At Villa Dolce, we create desserts that spark joy, foster connection, and elevate the guest experience—because life is sweeter when it’s shared.

We started Villa Dolce not only because we wanted to share a product we loved, but because we missed the Italian way of life. In Italy, quality products and quality time together are deeply valued. Italians understand the importance of slowing down, savoring the moment, and connecting with one another. Now that I have my own family, that belief is more important to me than ever. I love that our products are meant to be shared, enjoyed, and remembered.
